

Most Americans believe the Equal Rights Amendment already exists.

Did you know there is not an Amendment to either the Minnesota or the U.S. Constitution that states specifically that women and men have equal protection under the law?

If you didn't, you're not alone --

Please join us in a screening of the film Legalize Equality and a discussion afterwards.

A brisk thirty minutes film about the ERA makes the strong argument for why completing ERA Ratification is critical today, more than ever.

Legalize Equality streamlines the critical information making the case for ERA in a concise and compelling manner.

"Equality under the law shall not be abridged or denied on account of gender."
